

Multi-Vacancy Management

WHAT IS IT?

MRK's Multi-Vacancy Management process is the perfect solution for businesses requiring more than one hire in a fast, efficient, hassle-free process. Ideal for business relocations, acquisition integrations, large project implementations or upscaling for large new business wins. Our M-VM process ensures a streamlined talent attraction solution, combined with a well organised behind-the-scenes delivery model.

Finding numerous hires to fit your culture and build a long-term sustainable team with the right identity is not easy. However, at MRK, we have perfected this process by combining the most up to date systems with our networking and market search expertise and a delivery model tailored to the needs and timescales of each unique campaign.
